Mentoring Asian American Professionals MAAP

Hosted by OCA Georgia Chapter & NAAAP Atlanta

What How many times have you been told that you should find a mentor? Have you always wanted to mentor someone? MAAP is a three month dialogue driven professional mentoring program for Asian Pacific Americans designed to explore the following professional development topics in 1:1 meetings as well as at a network convening and workshops: Networking, Communications & Negotiations, and Collaborative Decision Making, and Leadership. This program will also culminate in development of a personal strategy plan.

Who The program is intended for entry level professionals to mid career for participants enrolled as mentees. As for mentors, we welcome individuals who have at least 5 years professional working experience, some supervisory or managerial experience and community involvement.

When & Where Orientation is scheduled for half day session on May 21 followed by network convenings on June 18 and July 9 in the Greater Atlanta area.

Cost $30 for OCA Members, $50 for NAAAP Members, and $70 for Non-OCA Members.
